Mini Project 1: Rats of New York

You included all your code and output in an R Markdown document that was converted to PDF or docx. The output in the final document does not include warnings or messages. Figures in the document are the appropriate file type (i.e. if exported as PDF, embedded figures are vector-based PDFs; if exported as docx, embedded figures are bitmap PNGs). You included standalone PNG and PDF versions of your final graphic.	You included your code and output in an R Markdown document, but the output includes warnings and package loading messages. Your visualization explores a deeper story in the raw data. You provide specific explanations of your design choices and demonstrate a deep understanding of the needs of your audience.	Your visualization explores a slightly more complicated story. Your explanations of design choices are cursory and demonstrate an okay understanding of the needs of your audience.	Your visualization does not tell a compelling story. Your description offers only surface-level insights into your design choices and audience.
